resources until this changes!

Our Play Charter

Our Old Basford OPAL Play Charter

We have the right to play and enjoy OPAL.
We have the responsibility to make sure everyone enjoys playtime by making sure:

- everyone chooses what to play
- we share equipment fairly and kindly
 - we take care of the equipment
 - we treat each other how we like to be treated
 - we keep everybody safe
 - we are kind to others
 - we help people if they need us
 - we allow people to join in games
- we ask grownups if we need help to sort out our problems
 - we listen to one another
 - we play safely

Playground Games

In 1983 to encourage children's play, a Nottingham headteacher collected the rhymes and games played by the children in his school.

Blue Bell Hill Games by R.A. Smith, illustrated by David McKee, was published by Puffin; in the same year Central TV screened a 14 minute feature, based on the book, about the games played at the school.

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the book and film, in 2023 a research team of ten Year 6 Bluebell Hill pupils worked with Rick Hall and Chris Hall to find out what the children are playing today. First we had a careful look at the original book and film. Then the researchers broke into sub-teams to survey all the different year groups in their school. We worked as a group to analyse the survey findings and to decide the best way of categorising the games that were being played.
